	Mike	Dry- Dark Berries, Lavender. Wet- Complex fruit.	3	Apple, Light Citrus, Cherry.	3	Elegant, Non- Descript, Drying.	1	Light, Clean.	2	Herbal, Floral (Nose)	2	Candied Sweetness as it cools, Lots of Clarity.
Warren	Dry: Berry; Wet: Caramel.	3	Cherry; Tart.	3	Grapefruit and apple.	4	Medium to light.	4	Fruity and floral.	4	Morish. Fruit juice morish.	4
Zane	Dry: "Classic" Ethiopian Yirgacheffe - Florals, lemons/lime, lemon sherbet, berries.	4	Lemon meringue. Nice. Enjoyable, but "expected"	2	Citrus lemon-like acidity. Nice but not in harmonious balance as a team player, didn't tie in well enough - was a bit too stand alone.	2	The mouthfeel was overall flat, dull, and slightly dry in the end. It had some body (medium) but lacked the mouth felt experience to tie it in together enough as a collective experience.	1	Long caramel sweetness, and lemon meringue	4	Lacked complexity I feel could be there; i.e. really nice but higher potential possible.	3

2	Cupper	Fragrance / Aroma	Flavour	Acidity	Body	Aftertaste	Overall
	Mike	Dry-Origanum, Cinnamon. Wet- Macadamia.	2	Lime, Earthy, Gem-squash.	1	Citrus, Berry, Delicate	3	Medium, Round.	3	Earthy	2	Borderline Underdeveloped, Good Acidity potential.
Warren	Dry: Earthy; Wet: Muddy.	2	Pharmaceutical; menthal.	2	Mild apple juice acidity.	2	Light.	2	Earthy. As it cools Bad pineapple.	2	underdeveloped and under done.	2
Zane	Dry: Slight earth / soil / dirty. Oatmeal biscuits. Slightly meaty (Bovril). Slight raw nuts. Wet: Oatmeal biscuits, caramel and muscavado sugar. On the break: Raw-peanut brittle, slight hay.	2	First sip, slight potato (?)	2	Stone-fruit-like acidity. Works together nicely.	3	Medium bodied. Overall, quite creamy mouth feel, with subtle dyer finish.	2	Slight hay / straw. Long notes of sweet caramel fudge and nuts (macadamia, raw peanuts)	3	An easy-drinking coffee for any-time of the day. A safer option.	3

3	Cupper	Fragrance / Aroma	Flavour	Acidity	Body	Aftertaste	Overall
	Mike	Dry- Cassis. Wet- Guava.	4	Dragonfruit, Papaya.	3	Mellow, Tropical.	3	Moderate, Smooth.	3	Tobacco.	2	Good Structure
Warren	Dry: Red Grape; Wet: nutty.	4	Pear.	4	Mild citrus.	4	Medium, good texture.	3	Sweet peach juice; Peach schupps as it cooled.	3	Yummy coffee; with good complexity.	4
Zane	Dry: Caramel, white chocolate. Darker tarter berries. Wet: Black berry jam, subtle stone fruits, complex	5	Complex, with each sip offering more / something different.	4	Red winey	4	Chewy / viscous. Long-lasting presence, but slightly dry in the end.	3	Caramel. Spicy red wine.	2	A complex, yet complimentary experience from start to finish, fragrance to aftertaste. Develops extra levels as cools. Yummy.	4
